participated on behalf of the Finnish government in grain transactions concerned with the current Soviet-Finnish trade agreement negotiations, stating that no final agreement had been reached between those two countries, and that negotiations are continuing.

2.

On the basis of the current market quotations we had supplied him  however, he did say that a price of US$75 per metric ton, free Finnish border, for oats had been accepted by the USSR, although the total quantity had not been decided upon.

3.

He added that prices and quantities of other grains under consideration had not as yet been settled, although he claimed there was no longer any need for us to continue supplying current market quotes.
